SensingReceivingFeeling is one. Sensing, receiving, feeling are oneness.

SensingReceivingFeeling is one. One is one. One is How, Why, What Is. Within one (t)here is no differentiation.
(T)here is no need for differentiation. Within one all is one. Silence.

Sensing, receiving, feeling are oneness. Oneness is the beingness of one. Oneness is how one expresses - materialises and manifests. Sensing, receiving, feeling are the beingness of one.

Sensing, receiving, feeling are oneness. SensingReceivingFeeling is one.

Sensing, receiving, feeling are independent from each other. Each of them is sovereign. Each is absolute, entire, complete. Sensing is absolute, entire, complete. Receiving is absolute, entire, complete. Feeling is absolute, entire, complete. Sensing, receiving, feeling exist each on their own. They are each on their own and of their own. Each of them is oneness. Sensing is oneness. Receiving is oneness. Feeling is oneness. Each is oneness. Together they are one. SensingReceivingFeeling is one. (T)here is one. One is How, Why, What Is.

Sensing, receiving, feeling belong together. They co-create, complement, complete each other. One of them does not exist without the others. The others are not without the other one of them. Only the other one of them and the others exist. The other one of them and the others are one. Together they are one. Together (t)here is one.

Sensing, receiving, feeling happen parallel. They exist simultaneously. They are simultaneous. They are a multi happening. They are one multi happening. They are one multi oneness.

SensingReceivingFeeling is multi one. (T)here is MultiOne.

Sensing, receiving, feeling multi happen. They need to multi happen. This is how, why, what they are. Them multi happening is faster than the human perception of speed. Their velocity exceeds the capacity of human discernment.

Sensing, receiving, feeling multi happen and multi are. They multi happen parallel and they multi are parallel. They are one multi parallel. They are one parallel multi. They are multi parallel one. They are multi one parallel. They are parallel multi one. They are parallel one multi.

ParallelOneMulti (t)here is.

Sensing, receiving, feeling require practice. They require dedication and consistency. They require time and space. The human needs to offer themselves to sensing, receiving, feeling on a moment-to-moment basis.
