

*Hirokazu, I invite you into this story, a story of our co-creation.
Thank you Thank me Thank us*

I choose to see you on 14th February.

I look at you and burst into tears.

I cry deeply. I cry intensely. I cry viscerally.

The entire me I cry through dimensions, time-space-spiral-sphere realities, continua, universes, multiverses... I cry through How_Why_What AM and through How_Why_What AM Not

I look into you and cry, again.

I miss you so much. I miss you so inconceivably.

I desire to meet you, NOW

I search for you and find a wikipedia note with your birthday,
14th February, and your deathday.

Out of time I am (t)here within you. I am internal to you.

I have your photo printed out, and buy you a photo frame made of mango wood.

NOW we are together.

Out of time.

One

Happy EverYou !
